16 July 1963

Dear Mr. Vinson:

I wish to extend to you my heartiest congratulations on this day which marks the occasion of your unprecedented service to your country as a representative of the American people.

Personally, it has been most rewarding to me to have worked with you over the years. I have always enjoyed the relationship which has been most friendly, and I am happy to look forward to its continuation.

With warm personal regards,

Sincerely,

signed "John"
